

Short Story Elements

Ms. Gates

Watch the video online of the elements of a short story, then try your best to complete this crossword.

Word Bank

SETTING, CONFLICT, PROTAGONIST, ANTAGONIST, THEME, PLOT, CLIMAX, FALLING ACTION, FIRSTPERSON, THIRDPERSON, RESOLUTION, SUSPENSE, MOOD, SELF, HUMAN, NATURE, SOCIETY

Across

- 1 The main problem in the story; there are four kinds of it.
- 5 Human vs _____ is a kind of conflict where the character struggles against other humans or animals
- 8 Romantic, gloomy, happy, sorrowful, joyful, suspenseful - all of these are examples of _____
- 9 This refers to the five main parts of the story
- 12 Human vs _____ is a kind of conflict where the character struggles against nature or fate.
- 13 This is the perspective when the narrator is IN the story and uses "I"
- 15 This is another word for the MAIN character.
- 16 The turning point of the story; what the rising actions leads up to.
- 17 Human vs _____ is a kind of conflict where the character struggles against what other people believe or customs

Down

- 2 All of the action that follows the climax.
- 3 This is the author's main message or moral.
- 4 The conclusion, the tying together of the whole story
- 6 This is another word for the SUPPORTING character; they also create the conflict.
- 7 A state or feeling of excited or anxious uncertainty about what may happen.
- 10 Human vs _____ is a kind of conflict where the character struggles against right or wrong, choices, etc.
- 11 This is the perspective when the narrator is telling the story from the outside and uses "he" and "she"
- 14 When and Where the story takes place